

- Be sure to enclose the proof of your SDI payments. We can accept a photocopy of the proof.
- If you prefer, you can take your proof (along with this letter) to your local Social Security office.

What If I Don't Have Any Proof?

Your benefits will continue in the same amount until we receive proof that your SDI payments have stopped. If you don't have proof of your SDI payments, please call the toll-free EDD Hotline at (800) 480-3287. Ask for a printout of your SDI payment record. Have handy the date you filed your SDI claim. If your last payment was more than a year ago, ask the EDD clerk to recall your record from the computer archive and then send the printout to you.

If for some reason you cannot contact the EDD, please sign the statement below:

I, _____, give the Social Security Administration permission to obtain information from the California Employment Development Department (EDD) regarding payments made to me.

Signed: _____ Date: _____

I Also Filed for Workers' Compensation Benefits – Should I Report That?

If your injury or illness was job-related, you may have also filed a claim for workers' compensation benefits. You must let us know if you received or are receiving workers' compensation or if you have a pending workers' compensation claim or appeal. Please enclose a copy of your workers' compensation approval notice or payment stub.
