Your Payments Will Be Changed As Follows

TBL010

Month	Amount due each month
May 2010	$0.00

MIS016 (optional)

and continuing

Your Payment is Based on These Facts

New UTI

We previously told you that we suspended your SSI because your 7-year period of eligibility ended. The law has changed. Congress enacted a new law called “The SSI Extension for Elderly and Disabled Refugees Act.” This new law extends eligibility for certain aliens, including some asylees and refugees. You may receive SSI for up to two more years, or until September 30, 2011, if you have applied for naturalization with the Department of Homeland Security and your application is pending or is approved, but you have not been sworn in as a U.S. citizen.

You Can Review the Information in Your Case

INF087

The decisions in this letter are based on the law and information in our records. You have a right to review and get copies of the information in our records that we used to make the decisions explained in this letter. You also have a right to review and copy the laws, regulations, and policy statements used in deciding your case. To do so, please contact us. Our telephone number and address are shown under the heading "If You Have Questions."

If You Disagree

ALS107

If you disagree with this decision, you have the right to appeal. We will review *F1 case, and consider any new facts you have. Then, a person who did not make the first decision will decide *F2 case. We will also look at those parts of the decision you agree with and may make them unfavorable or less favorable to *F3.

- You have 60 days to ask for an appeal
- The 60 days start the day after you receive this letter. We assume you got this letter 5 days after the date on it unless you show us that you did not get it within the 5-day period.
- You must have a good reason for waiting more than 60 days to ask for an appeal.
- To appeal, you must fill out a form called "Request for Reconsideration." The form number is SSA-561. To get this form, contact one of our offices. We can help you fill out the form.

How To Appeal

RPN027

There are two ways to appeal. You can pick the way you want. If you meet with us in person, it may help us decide your case.

- Case Review - You have the right to review the facts in your file. You can give us more facts to add to your file. Then we'll decide your case again. You won't meet with the person who decides your case.
- Informal Conference - You'll meet with the person who decides your case. You can tell that person why you think you're right. You have the right to review the facts in your file. You can give us more facts to help prove you are right. You can bring other people to help explain your case.

ALSC09

If You Want Help With Your Appeal

REP002

You can have a friend, representative, or someone else help you. Many representatives do not charge a fee unless you win your appeal. There are groups that can help you find a representative or give you free legal services if you qualify. Your local Social Security office has a list of groups that can help you with your appeal.

If you get someone to help you, please let us know. If you hire someone, we must approve the fee before he or she can collect it.

If You Want An Interpreter To Help You

INF082

We provide free interpreter services to help you conduct your Social Security business. These interpreter services are available whether you talk to us by phone or in the Social Security office. Call our toll-free number, 1-800-772-1213, press 2 if you need an interpreter in Spanish, and stay on the line until a representative answers. An interpreter who speaks Spanish will be contacted to help with your call. If your business cannot be completed by phone, we will make an appointment for you at a local Social Security office and arrange for an interpreter to be there at the time of your visit.
